St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Lappans, Md.

ST. MARK'S

2 –

Consecrated in 1849, St. Mark's stands today as one of the most picturesque churches in Maryland. During the Civil War, the small church was used as a hospital for troops. The present Rector is The Reverend William M. Moore.

post card

PLACE STAMP
HERE

Another historic scene from the area served by The Potomac Edison System.